

THE LAST FIVE YEARS · THE SECOND SCREEN

The Cue Bible

build-2026-09-19 · torn score

68 cues · 14 songs · generated from the live show build, so this document cannot drift from what the phones actually do

THE STANDING RULE: the phone behaves exactly like a real phone. Tapping a notification IS the unlock — the app opens directly, no home screen. Inboxes and message lists load whole the instant the app opens, and a full life continues past the bottom edge of the glass. Only what would genuinely arrive right now — a text, a notification, new mail — appears live, and new mail lands at the top. Anything that violates this is a bug, even if it would make a nice theatrical beat.

How to read each entry: the header gives the cue ID, which screen, whose phone, the app, and the musical anchor. ON SCREEN is the complete content, verbatim and untruncated. PLAYS covers mechanics the engine performs on its own — navigation, self-timed animation, synthesized sound. PHONES gives the state after the cue when it changed. Gold notes carry dramaturgy, holds, and open director choices.

1 · Still Hurting CATHY SINGS · 8 FIRES

COLD OPEN, NO PHONE. One GO: the title page tears off the calendar and falls, and beneath it the date holds — JUNE · YEAR 5, the morning after — center-stage through the whole prologue. On her verse-two line the calendar docks and her phone rises and plays out on its own: the Memories notification she ignores, Messages, his thread — days of her asking, a Thursday of silence — and she types her text and SENDS. Delivered, then READ 9:44. His typing bubble rises. It stops. Then she opens the Memories: four cards, four years, and she drifts back up to the bear and stays there until the phone goes.

1.0a SR · CATHY — HOUSE — the preshow performer is announced

The pad turns to tonight's preshow performer — the name the operator chose on the start screen, nothing else on the page, the photographs still landing behind it. If NONE was chosen the title card simply stays up and this GO does nothing.

HOLD · Hold here for the whole preshow set.

1.0b SR · CATHY — THE PRESHOW SET IS OVER — the performer is off

Back to the title card and the photographs, for the rest of the house. The show does NOT start on this GO.

HOLD · Hold until places. The next GO is the top of the show.

1.1 SR · CATHY — PROLOGUE — the first note of the wedding waltz

ONE GO. The title page tears off the pad and falls; beneath it the calendar reads JUNE · YEAR 5, the morning after, and holds center-stage through the whole prologue. No phone, no sound.

ON SCREEN

TIME → 9:41 · Friday, June 12, 2026 — the house reads JUNE · YEAR 5; the calendar pages roll to it under the TIME WARP music (forward tears, backward settles) before any device appears

ERA FOOT LINE → "the morning after"

PROLOGUE WIND-DOWN — the falling pages thin out over ~0 s; the last one blows away; the calendar lands

HOLD · The tear happens on the GO. Nothing else moves until her verse-two line.

1.2 SR · CATHY · Messages — “Jamie arrived at the end of the line” — she picks up the phone and sends it

AUTO-PLAYS from this GO (~50 s — slow; every pause is tunable in tech). The calendar docks; her phone rises, locked — a Facebook Memories notification lands and she ignores it. Unlock, Messages (the whole list is condolences), his thread mid-history — days of her asking, all silent. She types it live, hesitant, and SENDS. Delivered.

THE FIRST NIGHT, FROM HIS SIDE. Three overwrought drafts die under the backspace key before two words survive: “home safe?” — the exact text the finale receives the same night. The calendar takes the stage again for a few seconds, and then she answers by calling instead. His hesitation here is the measure for how fast he moves in 13.

3 · See I'm Smiling BOTH SING · 8 FIRES

HER SONG, HIS CALLS. She has no phone in this number: the era holds center-stage while she sings. Then his 2021 calls cut in — the agent cold call, the callback, and Rob — and each hang-up rolls the time home to her July. Every call rings twice and connects itself; the operator's next cue is the one that ends it. The call to Rob is two GOs: the calendar rolls back first and holds, and the phone rises dialing only once he actually has it in his hand. The calendar does not move into song 4: he hangs up on Rob and sings.

3.1 BOTH · CATHY — TOP OF SEE I'M SMILING — the first chord (the pier)
